

Kingston Township donates to Dallas High School Lock-In party

The Kingston Township Board of Supervisors presented a $500 donation to the Dallas High School Parent Teacher Student Organization Graduation Lock-In 2024 in order to help support the all-night party for the Class of 2024. The event provides a safe, drug and alcohol-free party for the high school seniors on graduation night. Attending the presentation, from left, are Supervisor Zeid Alhashemi, Supervisor James Balavage, 2024 Lock-In Committee Chairperson Pam Robbins, Supervisor Chairman Tom Ketchner, Vice-Chair Kim Rose and Supervisor Melissa Chamberlain.
